8. Travel Tips

- * Visa: Indian citizens can apply for a Visa on Arrival (VOA) in Thailand, which is valid for 15 days. However, it's often smoother to apply for an e-Visa or regular tourist visa in advance from India to save time at the airport. Check the latest requirements before travel.
- * Currency: Thai Baht (THB). Exchange money at reputable counters or withdraw from ATMs. Notify your bank before international travel.
- * Language: Thai. English is widely spoken in tourist areas. Learning a few basic Thai phrases like "Sawasdee krap/ka" (hello), "Khob khun krap/ka" (thank you) will be appreciated.
- * Connectivity: Buy a local SIM card (available at airports) upon arrival for easy internet access. eSIM options are also available.
- * Dress Code: When visiting temples, dress respectfully (shoulders and knees covered).

Remove shoes before entering temples and private homes.

* Bargaining: It's common to bargain in markets and with tuk-tuk drivers, but always do so politely and with a smile.

* Hydration: Thailand can be hot and humid. Drink plenty of water.

* Sun Protection: Carry sunscreen, hats, and sunglasses, especially for beach and island activities.

* Footwear: Comfortable walking shoes are essential for Bangkok's streets and temple visits. Flip-flops or sandals are good for Krabi.

* Safety: Thailand is generally safe. Be aware of your surroundings, especially in crowded areas, and watch out for common tourist scams (e.g., gem scams, overly pushy tuk-tuk drivers).

* Photography: Always ask for permission before taking photos of people, especially monks.

* Respect the Monarchy: Thailand has deep respect for its King and Royal Family. Any disrespect is taken seriously.

* Booking in Advance: For a trip with this budget, consider booking international and domestic flights, and luxury accommodations well in advance, especially during peak season, to secure better rates and availability. Private tours can also be pre-booked.

Enjoy your incredible adventure in Thailand!
